

Bar Yochai Dreams In Twos

Bar Yochai dreamed peace.
On the way to Rome he fell into a pond
saw two letters floating in the water.
Bar Yochai always dreamed up.
He saw the complete version of peace
written in one word on the sky canopy.

He spent his last days believing
if he could make the peace prayers
properly
twice
the world would be redeemed.
'Scuse me while I kiss the sky, he said.

james stone goodman